Headteacher – Mrs L Nealings

Dear Families

The NEU teaching union have planned a series of national teaching strike days commencing on 1 February 2023. It is anticipated that our school will be affected by strike action in some capacity.

I am currently awaiting guidance from Bishop Bewick Catholic Education Trust and I am exploring all of the options available to us, ensuring that health and safety will not be compromised, to try and keep school open for as many pupils as possible.

Thank you for your patience and I will keep you informed with any updates.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Nealings
Head Teacher
